Simple Ways to Put Money in Your Pocket

A little extra money would always be nice, especially with the holidays approaching. So we wanted to send over a few simple ideas you might be able to use to earn a little cash. Perhaps you are creative, or maybe you have some time you could sit at the computer, or perhaps you are great at yard work and housekeeping. Think about putting your skills and passions to use to bring in some extra income:

Make your own – Etsy.com - handcrafted and vintage items. The items that sell best here are typically non-essential, lower-priced items like soap or bead necklaces. This is not a great way to earn enough to live on, but it can be great for some extra cash and a fun hobby.

Simple Computer Tasks - Amazon Turks is a part of Amazon.com where you can complete tasks that it is hard for computers to do but relatively easy for humans. You can do searches on phone numbers and addresses or qualify whether statements about a product are positive or negative. Your payment is transferred through your Amazon account. Again, not enough to live on, but it can give you a little extra cash.

Part-time Gig - You can look for odd jobs on Craigslist.org in the part time section or by doing a keyword search. Examples include: housekeeping, yard work, real estate assistant, tutoring, photography, pet care and grooming, baker's assistant, etc.
